

Assignment # 1. Quran Translation-1.

Question 1:

In Surah Al-Ma'asij (surah no. 70) verse 35. Allah (SWT) has mentioned that the people who will be in gardens, honored are those who:

1. Fear the punishment of Allah (SWT)
2. They Establish prayers.
3. Believe in the hereafter.
4. They give Zakat, Sadaqah and other forms of charity to the poor and needy.
5. Strictly avoid immoral and wicked deeds, practice honesty in all their dealings, fulfilling their pledges & trust and bear true witness.

I can implement these attributes in my daily life to improve my social & personal life. by being mindful of my actions and to avoid hurting anyone. by my words, deeds, by thinking Allah is watching me and fearing his punishment and believing in the Hereafter. Also by praying your Salah on time. It should be our first priority. We can implement the fifth attribute by being truthful in our speech, fulfilling our promises and treating others with kindness and respect.

Question 2:

Allah (SWT) wants his believers to lead a life that is balanced between personal & social responsibilities. In Surah Al-Furqan, Allah (SWT) states that the true servants of Allah (SWT) are those who walk on the earth with humility and who, when the ignorant address them, reply with words of peace. This means that Muslims should be humble and respectful towards others, regardless of their social status or beliefs. They should also be kind and compassionate towards their fellow human beings, and strive to help those in needs.

According to Surah Al-Targham, those who repent, believe and do good deeds are the ones whose evil deeds will be converted into good deeds. This means that if someone has committed a sin in the past, but has sincerely repented and started doing good deeds, then Allah (S.W.T) will forgive their sins and reward them for their good deeds.

Allah (S.W.T) states that the true servants of Allah (S.W.T) are those who do not bear false witness, who do not engage in backbiting, and who do not engage in vain talk. This means that Muslims should be honest and truthful in their dealings with others, and should avoid spreading rumors or engaging in gossip. They should also use their time and resources wisely, and avoid wasting them on frivolous pursuits.

Question 3:

The attributes of these believers mentioned in verse 7 of surah 23 of Surah Al-Muminun are:

1. Humble in their prayers. The believers are humble in their prayers and possess khushoo in their prayers.
2. Avoid vain talk. The believers ~~are humble~~ avoid vain talk and do not engage in backbiting or spreading rumors.
3. Active in paying Zakah. The believers are active in paying Zakah those who are obligated and can pay it.

4. Safeguard their chastity. The believers safeguard their chastity and avoid engaging in any form of haram deed.

To implement these quantities for the betterment of ourselves and society, ~~you~~^{we} can start by practicing them in your daily life. We can be more mindful of our prayers, also avoid engaging in gossip or spreading rumors and instead, focus on positive things.

Also donating to needy and poor. By practicing these qualities, we can become a better person and contribute to the betterment of society.
