

1. What is the primary goal of marketing?

- A) Increasing the company's profits
- B) Building a strong brand
- C) Creating value for customers ✓
- D) Sell More

2. In entrepreneurship, successful brands are viewed primarily as:

- A) Decorative design elements
- B) Features and specifications of a product
- C) Solutions that address customer pain points ✓
- D) Business registration identities

3. Which of the following statements best differentiates entrepreneurship from intrapreneurship?

- A) Entrepreneurship involves minimal risk, while intrapreneurship involves significant risk.
- B) Entrepreneurship starts entirely new ventures, while intrapreneurship innovates within existing organizations. ✓
- C) Entrepreneurship refers to innovation within existing companies, whereas intrapreneurship focuses on creating new businesses.
- D) Entrepreneurship does not involve innovation, unlike intrapreneurship.

4. Careem's early success in Pakistan came from offering verified captains, route tracking, and cashless payments. Which customer pain point did this innovation address?

- A) Functional pain point: lack of reliable, trackable transport ✓
- B) Emotional pain point: travel anxiety -
- C) Financial pain point: high taxi fares
- D) Lifestyle pain point: luxury travel

5. A new ride-sharing startup offers university students 50% discounts on daily commutes.

Which pain point is primarily solved?

- A) Financial pain point: affordability for low-income or student riders ✓
- B) Productivity pain point: saving time
- C) Emotional pain point: independence
- D) Functional pain point: route accuracy

6. A cybersecurity startup offers real-time breach detection with push notifications.

Which type of pain point does this primarily target?

- A) Functional pain point: protecting data and system integrity
- B) Psychological pain point: brand image of safety -
- C) Financial pain point: reducing insurance costs
- D) Productivity pain point: automation ✓

7. A new Pakistani freelancer platform guarantees payment security via escrow and AI contract verification.

Which pain point is being addressed?

- A) Functional pain point: portfolio visibility
- B) Financial pain point: high commission fees

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

- C) Psychological pain point: trust and fear of non-payment ✓
- D) Lifestyle pain point: remote flexibility

8. A new app combines video calls, whiteboards and real-time code editing for distributed teams. Which pain point does it primarily target?

- A) Lifestyle pain point: digital work trend .
- B) Functional pain point: tool integration
- C) Financial pain point: reducing office rent
- D) Productivity & efficiency pain point: improving collaboration in remote teams ✓

9. A local ride-sharing service is competing with large global companies like Uber. Using the Six Paths Framework, how can the company look across alternative industries to find a Blue Ocean?

- A) Develop a new app with the same features
- B) Offer ride-sharing packages targeting school runs and corporate commutes ✓
- C) Focus on creating luxury ride experiences .
- D) Reduce fares across the board to match competitors

10. Which brand most clearly leverages the emotional pain point related to inferiority complexes according to the lecture content?

- A) Spotify
- B) Fair & Lovely (Now Glow & Lovely) ✓
- C) Netflix
- D) Visa

11. Which of the following brand examples would be the best address for a productivity and efficiency pain point?

- A) HSBC
- B) Lake City
- C) Coursera ✓
- D) Maghrib Security

12. Which of the following is NOT a step in the strategic planning process?

- A) Defining the company mission
- B) Setting objectives and goals
- C) Designing the business portfolio
- D) Increasing sales directly ✓

13. A startup launches a mobile app that helps freelancers automatically generate invoices. Users only realize how useful it is after their first successful payment without errors. From a practical entrepreneurial standpoint, when does the customer actually perceive value?

- A) When they download the app
- B) When they see the app's features on the website
- C) When they experience a real outcome or solution — i.e., successful invoice and payment ✓
- D) When they receive a promotional email

14. Which of the following is NOT considered a digital advertising platform?

- A) Mobile Apps

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

- B) Search Engines
- C) Radio ✓
- D) Social Media

15. Which of the following statements accurately describes the difference between marketing and branding as per the lecture content?

- A) Marketing communicates the solution, whereas branding identifies customer pain points.
- B) Branding creates emotional connection and loyalty, whereas marketing focuses on creating and providing solutions. ✓
- C) Marketing focuses solely on messaging, whereas branding is strictly about selling products.
- D) Branding emphasizes affordability, while marketing focuses on premium pricing strategies.

16. A new productivity app called "FocusZen" helps students block distractions, track study hours, and celebrate daily progress. Thousands of users rate it highly even though similar apps exist for free. From a customer-value standpoint, what do users truly value FocusZen?

- A) Because it has a better interface and trendy color scheme
- B) Because it gives them a sense of progress, control, and personal growth — outcomes they emotionally and psychologically desire ✓
- C) Because it was made by a popular tech influencer
- D) Because it takes up less storage space on their phone

17. How does Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs apply to the question of why customers value a particular product?

- A) It highlights how product pricing drives customer decisions
- B) It shows how people prioritize needs, from basic survival needs to higher emotional fulfillment, influencing their purchasing decisions ✓
- C) It focuses on competitors' pricing strategies
- D) It explains only the technical features of a product

18. In Moriarty's Domains Model, which domain specifically addresses changing the customer's attitudes and behavior?

- A) Perception
- B) Learning
- C) Persuasion
- D) Attention

19. An example of Non-Digital Advertising is:

- A) Social media ads
- B) Influencer marketing
- C) Email newsletters
- D) Billboard advertisements ✓

20. What differentiates digital advertising from non-digital advertising primarily?

- A) Higher cost per viewer
- B) Requirement for internet-based platforms ✓
- C) Use of traditional media exclusively
- D) Limited interactive capabilities

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

21. What is the primary difference between Red Ocean and Blue Ocean strategies?

- A) Red Ocean focuses on cost leadership, Blue Ocean focuses on differentiation
- B) Red Ocean competes in an existing market, while Blue Ocean creates new market space ✓
- C) Red Ocean involves low competition, Blue Ocean focuses on high competition
- D) Red Ocean focuses on customer satisfaction, Blue Ocean focuses on profitability

22. A Pakistani tech startup called "ByteCare" offers online laptop repair services. They pick up devices from home, provide live video updates during repairs, and share customer stories showing how they "bring devices back to life."

- A) Product differentiation – offering new hardware components
- B) Channel differentiation – using multiple pickup points ✓
- C) Service and people differentiation – delivering convenience through skilled staff ✓
- D) Image differentiation – showing luxury positioning

23. A Pakistani e-commerce startup "TechWay" builds partnerships with local corner shops to serve as mini pick-up hubs for deliveries, making it faster than typical home delivery. Which differentiation strategy best describes TechWay's model?

- A) Channel differentiation: creating accessibility ✓
- B) Product differentiation: cheaper gadgets
- C) People differentiation: friendly delivery staff
- D) Image differentiation: green packaging campaign

24. Which stage in the Customer Decision Journey focuses on engaging already interested customers by offering deeper insights into the product?

- A) Awareness
- B) Consideration
- C) Evaluation
- D) Intent

25. The Value Proposition Canvas helps businesses understand:

- A) Their competitors' weaknesses
- B) The financial viability of marketing campaigns
- C) How to align their offerings with what the customer values ✓
- D) How to improve their profit margins

26. A ride-hailing app "SwiftGo" introduces loyalty rewards for users who book rides more than 20 times a month. Their marketing highlights "the more you ride, the more you earn."

- A) Channel segmentation: app versus website
- B) Demographic segmentation: income and age
- C) Psychographic segmentation: lifestyle convenience ✓
- D) Channel segmentation: app versus website

27. What distinguishes marketing from advertising?

- A) Marketing focuses solely on emotional branding, while advertising targets product features
- B) Marketing drives sales; advertising supports the pricing strategy

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

- C) Marketing builds brand identity; advertisement generates loyalty
- D) Marketing is about solving problems; advertising is about communicating the solution ✓

28. What does market positioning involve?

- A) Setting up a product for maximum profitability
- B) Differentiating the product to appear unique in the marketplace
- C) Creating a distinctive place for the product in the consumer's mind relative to competitors
- D) Targeting multiple segments with different strategies

29. During which stage of the Customer Decision Journey do customers actively compare brands and options?

- A) Consideration
- B) Purchase
- C) Awareness
- D) Loyalty

30. A startup uses machine learning to cluster users based on time spent on app, spending patterns, and feature usage frequency — no demographics involved.

- A) Behavioral segmentation through data analytics and pattern discovery ✓
- B) Psychographic segmentation through emotions
- C) Geographic segmentation using heatmaps
- D) Demographic segmentation using user profiles

31. Jazz's strategic transition from emphasizing network functionality to promoting a lifestyle reflects which strategic path?

- A) Looking across functional/emotional appeal
- B) Looking across alternative industries
- C) Looking across complementary products
- D) Looking across strategic groups

32. In market segmentation, which of the following is a valid segmentation basis?

- A) Customer loyalty ✓
- B) Psychographics (lifestyle, beliefs)
- C) Brand awareness
- D) Customer profit margins

33. A company uses the Strategy Canvas to analyze its industry. They find that all competitors emphasize price discounts. To stand out, what key factor should they focus on in the strategy canvas?

- A) Reduce customer service efforts
- B) Raise unique product features and personalized customer experiences ✓
- C) Eliminate online ordering options
- D) Focus solely on matching competitors' discounts

34. A digital marketing team is developing a campaign for a clothing brand. According to the AIDA Model, what is the primary goal during the Attention Stage?

- A) Drive immediate sales
- B) Capture potential customers' attention ✓

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

- C) Build long-term customer loyalty
- D) Retain existing customers

35. Creating customer value leads to which of the following outcomes?

- A) Higher short-term revenue
- B) Increased operational efficiency
- C) Stronger customer relationships and long-term value ✓
- D) Larger marketing budgets

36. Why is the development of a Value Proposition Canvas important in creating a digital marketing plan?

- A) It helps determine the financial feasibility of a product launch
- B) It identifies the target audience's needs and pain points, ensuring alignment with the brand's value ✓
- C) It reduces the marketing budget
- D) It helps create marketing partnerships with other brands

37. A customer seeking better social status and lifestyle upgrades would most likely respond positively to:

- A) Spotify's music playlists for relaxation.
- B) Lemon Max dishwashing soap.
- C) Lake City's luxury housing. ✓
- D) Disprin's pain-relief medication

38. Market segmentation is the process of identifying subsets of buyers that:

- A) Have different buying behaviors
- B) Share similar needs and demonstrate similar buyer behavior ✓
- C) Only purchase luxury products
- D) Focus on high-end products

39. Which of the following statements is TRUE about branding?

- A) Branding creates emotional associations and lasting impressions ✓
- B) Branding is about identifying market trends and customer segments
- C) Branding communicates the features of a product to a broad audience
- D) Branding focuses on distribution channels and pricing strategy

40. What distinguishes marketing from advertising?

- A) Marketing focuses solely on emotional branding, while advertising targets product features
- B) Marketing drives sales; advertising supports the pricing strategy
- C) Marketing builds brand identity; advertisement generates loyalty
- D) Marketing is about solving problems; advertising is about communicating the solution ✓

41. When entrepreneurs imagine their brand as a person, asking "If my brand were human, what gender, tone, and attitude would it have?", this creative thinking process falls under which business function?

- A) Branding ✓
- B) Advertising
- C) Marketing
- D) Sales strategy

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

42. Which factor is crucial for developing a creative advertisement?

- A) Focusing solely on the budget of the campaign
- B) Collaborating and discovering the right emotion that resonates with the target audience ✓
- C) Copying competitors' ad formats
- D) Reducing creative risk by sticking to traditional advertising methods

43. When creating a Customer-Driven Marketing Strategy, what should be the first step?

- A) Market Positioning
- B) Market segmentation
- C) Creating a value proposition
- D) Competitive analysis

44. Which of the following market segmentation bases would categorize customers by their lifestyle and beliefs?

- A) Demographic
- B) Geographic
- C) Socio-cultural
- D) Psychographic ✓

45. What is the primary goal of an advertisement designed for the Awareness Stage?

- A) Generate immediate sales
- B) Provide detailed product information ✓
- C) Capture attention and introduce the brand ✓
- D) Offer discounts and promotions

46. Which of the following is NOT typically targeted during the Consideration Stage of the Customer Decision Journey?

- A) Deep comparisons between competing products
- B) Answering specific product-related questions
- C) Establishing brand awareness for the first time
- D) Highlighting the unique value proposition of the product

47. The Intent Stage is primarily concerned with:

- A) Building loyalty for future purchases
- B) Offering detailed comparisons of multiple product options
- C) Converting consideration into a firm purchase decision
- D) Introducing customers to new brands

48. If a company aims to position its product clearly against competitors in consumers' minds, it should answer:

- A) Whom you have to defeat to own the position you want? ✓
- B) What is the highest price customers will pay?
- C) How much discount can you offer? —
- D) What demographic segment is easiest to reach? —

49. Transactional difficulties like complicated online payment processes specifically reduce customer pain point?

please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking

- ...in point
- B) Functional pain point —
 - C) Financial pain point
 - D) Productivity and efficiency pain point —

50. A brand like Jubilee Insurance promoting group belongingness targets which emotional pain point specifically?

- A) Inferiority complex
- B) Self-presentation
- C) Belongingness ✓
- D) Glamour and beauty

51. Which of the following products directly addresses a basic survival pain point according to the lecture content?

- A) Netflix subscription
- B) Grammarly writing assistant
- C) Nestle Water ✓
- D) Rolex watches

52. Which of these scenarios best represents channel differentiation?

- A) Nike releasing distinct shoes for running and training.
- B) Lemon Max emphasizing superior cleaning power.
- C) Netflix offering exclusive original series unavailable on other platforms.
- D) Visa enabling smooth and secure payment processes. ✓

53. Differentiation in the marketplace can be achieved through various means, including:

- A) Product, service, channel, people, and image differentiation
- B) Cost-cutting strategies and lower pricing ✓
- C) Focusing solely on product features
- D) Avoiding direct competition with larger brands

54. Which of the following advertising strategies best fits the Consideration Stage?

- A) Ads highlighting unique product features
- B) Discount offers for immediate purchases
- C) Videos showcasing customer testimonials
- D) General brand awareness campaigns

55. How (کیسے) does the customer value?

- A) Left Brain and Right Brain Marketing ✓
- B) Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs
- C) Value Proposition Canvas
- D) Pata Nai

What
Why
How
When

56. Which brand in Pakistan successfully created a "Blue Ocean" by merging technology with transportation, thereby redefining traditional commuting?

- A) Sapphire
- B) Careem ✓
- C) Khaadi

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!

D) Jazz

57. When purchasing a smartphone, which of the following is an example of the core product?

- A) The physical phone with its features and specifications
- B) The brand's warranty and customer support services
- C) The ability to communicate with others, access the internet, and use apps ✓
- D) The phone's packaging and design

58. In the context of a luxury hotel stay, which of the following would be considered part of the augmented product?

- A) The bed, room, and basic amenities
- B) The emotional benefit of relaxation and comfort during the stay
- C) Complimentary airport transfers, free Wi-Fi, and 24/7 room service ✓
- D) The hotel's brand name and reputation

59. A young entrepreneur plans to launch a new gadget brand. Before announcing the release date, she studies supplier timelines, shipping routes, and component availability. How is the supply chain helping her at this stage?

- A) By increasing product features through R&D
- B) By providing data to plan realistic launch dates, manage expectations, and avoid broken promises to customers ✓
- C) By improving branding and advertisement strategies
- D) By reducing the need for customer feedback

60. A young entrepreneur launches a startup selling eco-friendly bottles online. Before finalizing the price, she maps her entire supply chain, including raw material sourcing, packaging, warehousing, and delivery partners to identify hidden costs and lead-time delays. How is this supply chain understanding helping her costing decisions?

- A) It helps her design a more attractive logo and brand image
- B) It allows her to see where money and time are spent, set realistic prices, and make reliable delivery promises ✓
- C) It reduces the need for digital marketing campaigns
- D) It increases brand awareness through supplier collaboration

Please note: 1 mark will be deducted for each incorrect answer as part of the negative marking. Answer carefully!